

Faded Away

A frozen memory,
Captured in time,
All emotions are shown,
In the click of a chime.

For many days the memory is saved,
Hardwood or plastic, they're all the same,
In a frame it is encased,
The image it stays in the mind.

Just remember me,
Remember me child,
Before I'm done with my time
In a click of a chime

Years have gone,
The memories grey,
All that was once,
Faded away.
