

My World

Take a step into my world,
You'll never want to leave,
Losing yourself in my realm,
It's something you can't retrieve.

Why have you come here?
You need to go,
Your soul is mere,
It's something you don't know.

You seem so brave,
But show it, you won't
Take this to your grave,
What will happen if you don't?
I told you it was dangerous,
Oh I told you so,
But then again my realm is my home,
And there's just something else you don't know...
